

Kingsley Associates

Business intelligence for the real estate industry.

Company Overview

Since 1985, real estate leaders have turned to Kingsley Associates to maximize their portfolio and organizational performance. Our suite of customizable tools and industry benchmarks strengthens the relationships between real estate firms and their key stakeholders.

Industry-leading Solutions

Tenant / Resident Surveys

The key to enhancing property and portfolio returns is through optimizing service delivery, operations, and customer satisfaction. Our in-depth programs benchmark across office, industrial, multifamily, medical office, and retail property types.

Broker Perception Surveys

When the competition for new tenants and investors is fierce, it is essential to start thinking of brokers as your customers. We take action to help you increase success rates for your marketing, leasing, and sales efforts.

Client / Investor Studies

Your reputation can effectively define your success or failure. We uncover the key drivers of your client / investor satisfaction and increase loyalty through our comprehensive interviews and surveys which provide direct feedback.

Strategic Consulting

Strategic direction in a shifting competitive landscape requires regularly assessing stakeholder needs, market positioning, organizational effectiveness, and industry trends. We empower our clients to sharpen focus and effectively plan change.

Employee Engagement Studies

Employees are a company's most valuable asset. If leveraged appropriately, your workforce can provide a competitive advantage which will lead to increased productivity, retention, and profitability.

Peer Benchmarking

With an in-depth understanding of operational performance versus a relevant group of peers, your organization will be poised to become an efficient and effective market leader.
